A UNIQUE GRAND SLAM

For almost a century, tennis heroes from around the world have graced the famous clay courts which give Roland-Garros its unique DNA. Roland-Garros is established as a major global sporting event and an unmissable event on the tennis calendar. As the only Grand Slam played on clay, Roland-Garros is unique and makes demands of the best players like no other surface.

A Parisian temple of tennis, Roland-Garros is an iconic tennis venue at the heart of the most beautiful city in the world. The links between the tournament and the French capital are stronger than ever.

Among the 600,000 spectators expected in 2022, approximately 100,000 corporate guests will take advantage of Roland-Garros as the perfect setting to develop commercial relationships and to extend business networks.

THE MEZZANINE AT L'ORANGERIE

Welcomed by the dedicated teams of the French Tennis Federation, guests will be guided to the historic building of l'Orangerie where they will enjoy refined gastronomy throughout the day combined with exceptional seats on the Court Philippe-Chatrier.

At the heart of the Jardin des Serres d'Auteuil, the historic Orangerie building is a VIP hospitality area located 100 metres from the Philippe-Chatrier court. Its architectural charm and overall ambience ensure guests enjoy a unique experience.

On the first floor of the Orangerie, you'll find the open, bright Mezzanine, which can accommodate up to 120 people for cocktail format lunch or dinner. Paris Society is the official catering partner, offering unlimited refreshments and a premium service throughout the day; all guests will also receive a Roland-Garros gift.
